Students receiving fellowships that are administered by the Office of Undergraduate Research and Fellowships are required to:

- Complete an assessment at the completion of the fellowship. Assessment will be emailed.
- Submit digital photos, if possible, of student engaging in the fellowship (e.g., working in the lab, engaged with a community partner, etc.).
- Submit regular reflections to their mentor. Reflections will be in the following form:
Journaling
- Submit or produce a final product in the form of:
Research report
- Acknowledge the appropriate fellowship program (Summer Fellowship, Lainoff Fellowship, etc.) in any presentation or publication resulting from the fellowship.
- Uphold the academic privileges and responsibilities of a Rhodes student during the time of the fellowship; this includes the provisions of the Rhodes College Honor Code, the Rhodes College Social Regulations Code, and the Rhodes College Commitment to Diversity.
- Students may not be compensated from multiple programs for the same work (i.e. Bonner Scholars receiving fellowship status may take stipends from one program or the other, but not both).

Faculty/Staff mentors supervising fellowships that are administered by the Office of Undergraduate Research and Fellowships are required to:

- Ensure all parts of fellowship application are complete.
- Provide mentoring and feedback on reflections and final product
- If awarded a stipend, ensure that student does not submit timesheets that exceed 35 hours / week for 8 weeks.
- Complete an assessment at the completion of the fellowship. Assessment will be emailed.

If for any reason a student cannot fulfill their fellowship obligations during summer 2024, funds will not be distributed and expenses will not be reimbursed.

By signing below, the student acknowledges that they agree to the above stipulations. Failure to comply with the above stipulations or failure to complete any of the above requirements is an Honor Code violation and will affect future funding consideration from the Office of Undergraduate Research and Fellowships.
